

Crossword

Pinch Pot

School Name:
Teachers Name:
Ceramics and Pottery I
Grades 6 - 12
[Dates]

ACROSS

1. Clay heated to a point of chemical change.
3. Heating clay in a kiln at a very high temperature until it is hard and becomes ceramic.
4. Clays and minerals mixed together to increase usability.
6. The amount of stretching that a clay can handle.
7. Allowing moisture to slowly evaporate from the work.
8. A liquid made of clay used to decorate or attach clay pieces.
9. Clay that is stiff and has a shiny surface.
10. A technique of scratching clay to join two pieces together.

DOWN

1. Clay that has fully dried before being heated.
2. The act of shaping clay by squeezing it between your fingers.
5. A device used to decorate ceramics.